EASTERN NEEDS MORE ROOM BADLY

So Regents Vote To Purchase Or Condemn William Gibson
Farm Adjoining

The Board of Regents of Eastern Kentucky State Normal School and Teachers' College met in regular quarterly session at the office on the campus and much business was transacted. The chief business was to hear the complaint of the North Jellico Coal Co. that the school increase its contract price for coal of $5.20 per ton delivered on the campus. It based its petition on the increased cost of labor which has occurred since the contract was made and alleged that whether an increase was granted that the coal would be delivered as required in the contract. The board, after due consideration, concluded that it had no authority to increase the contract price and therefore refused the request for the increase.

The Board of Regents also decided unanimously that the State should acquire by purchase or condemnation the entire farm known as the Wm. Gibson farm, which lies east and south of the Normal School campus, as there is no doubt that Eastern now needs and in the future purposes and development of this great institution of learning will have to have this entire farm or at least land at once a very large portion thereof.

MAC NIDER SOUNDS LEGION KEYNOTE

(By Associated Press)
New Orleans, Oct. 16.—Declaration that the American Legion regarded the interest of the disabled service man as the first responsibility and that with due regard to the "adjusted compensation act, we've just started to fight," were the outstanding points in the address of Hanford MacNider, national commander, delivered before the fourth annual convention of the Legion at its opening session here today.

"Adjusted compensation legislation is right; we know it and the right always prevails in America," MacNider said, and added "a great well financed attack by interests which we cannot help, but fell are sordid and selfish, has given us one little setback, but those who represent the people in Washington are with us by great majorities and no one can stand between the wishes of the people of America and the fulfillment of what they believe to be a just obligation."

SQUIRE JOE LONG IS STRONG FOR ROAD TAX

Former Strong Opponent of Road
Road Taxes and Bond Issues
Changes Position

Squire Joe Long, of Kirksville, who has voted against every road tax and road bond issue, previously proposed for Madison county has come out strong for the special 20c road tax that will be voted on by the people of Madison county on Nov. 7th.

Squire Long declares that he is not only for the road tax this time, but he is working for it. He says that there has been a great change of sentiment in his section of the country, also, Kirksville and the Posey section have usually given majorities against the road bond or tax questions, but Squire Long says there has been a remarkable change of sentiment, and he expects to see his whole country down there roll up big majorities for the tax.

Squire Long was in Richmond a short while Monday en route to the Masonic Grand Lodge meeting at Louisville this week. He told the Daily Register why he has changed his position so completely on the road tax question.

"In the first place," said the popular Squire, "I have the utmost confidence in the members of the Citizens' Committee which the Fiscal Court has designated to have complete charge of the special road tax fund, if voted. They are all men of the highest type; men of integrity and business and enjoy the entire confidence of every one in the community."

"Then, too," said the Squire, "I have been noticing what our neighbor counties have been doing. They have been voting their money and building good roads and enjoying them. I have come to the conclusion that I won't do for old Madison—the very best county in the Blue Grass—to be behind the procession any longer. If we're going to keep step with progress, we've got to build good roads, and there's only one way to do it. The state wants to pay half the cost, and it's bad business not to let it. We have to vote a tax to provide our share and I'm for it now and working for it, as I hope my friends will do."

SIMPSON BEGINS REVIVAL TONIGHT

Big crowds attended both services in the opening of the revival meeting yesterday at the First Christian church. The morning audience in which the Communion Service was the chief factor filled the big auditorium and brought together almost a unanimous attendance of the members of the First Christian church. In the evening service the big chorus under the direction of Miss Mary White, of Lexington, was an attractive and inspiring feature. The special music last night was rendered by the male quartet and was greatly enjoyed. The big audience responded in a remarkable way in the opening song service and everywhere there is the opinion that the singing will be one of the most attractive features of the meeting.

Dr. Simpson is expected to arrive from Atlanta tonight and will preach his first sermon in the evening service at 7:15. At the close of the service there will be an informal reception for those present to meet Dr. Simpson and Miss White.

If the opening day has any significance in a meeting, the community may expect one of the most successful in the history of Richmond. Everything is in readiness for two weeks of intensive campaign.

BOGGS HAS STRONG ARGUMENT FOR TAX

State Highway Engineer Hopes
His Home County Will Help
Him Build It Good Roads

Intense interest in what Madison county purposes to do in regards to voting the special 20-cent road tax was manifested by State Highway Engineer Joe S. Boggs, who came over from Frankfort Sunday to spend the week-end at his old home here.

Mr. Boggs, as head of the State Road Department is very anxious to do something for his home county of Madison, and for that reason hopes the people will vote this special tax and provide funds so the State can meet them halfway in building good roads here.

Although he dislikes making a speech to his home people, Mr. Boggs is coming back next Saturday afternoon to tell them face to face just what he thinks of the road tax they are asked to vote, and to urge them to vote it if they really want good roads. Jeff Morgan, formerly of Madison and Farm Bureau leader, and Rodman Wiley, ex-commissioner of Roads, will also speak here with Mr. Boggs.

Mr. Boggs says that the figures show there are something like 2,000 automobiles in Madison county. The yearly depreciation to an automobile from lapping over bad roads is figured by experts at $100 a year. Thus the automobile owners of Madison county are losing $200,000 a year in costs, repair bills, maintenance, etc. of their cars because of their bad roads.

The State Highway Engineer points out also a great saving that the farmer who has produce and crops to haul to market effects over good roads. These figures are estimated by the most careful statisticians who have studied records also. Over a bad road a farmer requires a team and a wagon to haul a ton of stuff; whereas over good roads he can haul with the same team two tons. Thus with the extra efforts, wasted energy time consumed, costs, etc., the difference between bad and good roads is easily $200,000 a year. It has been conclusively proven that the money which is wasted on bad roads would build and maintain a splendid system of highways in the state.

Mr. Boggs speaks in Richmond, at the courthouse Saturday afternoon and at Berea that night. He will undoubtedly be heard by large audiences.

CANTRILL TO SPEAK FOR GILBERT FRIDAY

Democrats and other voters of Madison county will undoubtedly be glad to welcome here Friday night Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill, who comes to speak for the re-election of Congressman Ralph Gilbert and the Democratic ticket. Congressman Cantrill is one of the strongest speakers in the party in the state. He has appeared all over the state in the interest of the tobacco pool and has done a great work for it. He is a farmer himself and played a big part in making the pool a success.

No more Rheumatism

"Suffering has gone from your face, mother!"

S. S. S. Is the Great Builder of Red Blood Cells and Rheumatism Must Go Just Try It!

"Rheumatism? Me? No, indeed, it's all gone, every bit of it! It's sunshine and joy for me now for the first time in years. I feel a wonderful glow again in the free motion I used to have when my days were younger. I look at my hands and think of the twists and swellings they used to have. I bend my way over to the floor. I haven't been able to do that in many years. I can thank S. S. S. for it all. To me it was a rising sun of joy and liberty. Brothers and sisters in misery, do not close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. It is here and now for all of you. S. S. S. is waiting to help you. There is a reason why S. S. S. will help you. When you increase the number of your red-blood cells, the entire system improves a tremendous change. Everything depends on blood strength. Blood which is minus sufficient red-cells leads to a long list of troubles. Rheumatism is one of them. S. S. S. is the great blood-cleanser, blood-builder, system-strengthening, nerve-invigorator. It stops skin eruptions, too, pimples, blackheads, acne, boils, eczema. SWIFT PRODUCE REVIEW

Lighter receipts and good demand resulted in higher markets for butter and butterfat. The preliminary report of cold storage holdings, issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, as of October 1, shows:

1921 ----- 90,116,000 lbs

Excess ----- 6,592,000 lbs

Production is reported a little heavier than last year.

Extra fall feeding will help keep up the milk flow and bring increased returns.

There was a liberal run of poultry during the week and with the demand for the Jewish holidays satisfied, the tendency is for lower values.

The principal demand is for the larger birds and the smaller kind, such as the Mediterranean breed, sell at considerable discount.

A good demand is noted for fine fresh eggs. Stock showing that it has been held is not wanted and sells at a discount.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture in its preliminary report shows stocks of eggs in cold storage as of October 1:

1922 ----- 7,902,000 cases
1921 ----- 6,269,000 cases

Excess ----- 1,633,000 cases

While the stocks are heavier than a year ago, consumption is also greater and the owners are hopeful of a satisfactory outcome.

In the larger cities, this slogan has been adopted and has been given considerable publicity: "Two eggs a day will clean up the hay."

Thirty-two counties in Kentucky reported production of petroleum and natural gas, according to the 1919 census.

A NEW HERO OF REVOLUTIONARY DAYS

(By Associated Press).
Louisville, Ky., Oct. 16.—Col. Lynn was one of the greatest heroes of the Revolutionary War according to George W. Beattie, a wealthy Californian, who recently came to Louisville to dig further into the life and history of what he calls "history's unsung hero."
According to Mr. Beattie, who produces records to substantiate his word, Colonel Lynn with George Gibson made a perilous journey from Virginia to New Orleans in order to get ammunition for the men fighting for America's liberty in the territory west of the Alleghenies. Arriving in New Orleans the men separated. Lynn brought what is believed to be the first cargo of ammunition up the Ohio river, while Gibson took powder to Virginia.

At Kashaskia, Lynn was second in command to General Clark and was one of the signers of the petition to the Virginia legislature asking for the establishment of Louisville, April 24, 1779. He also took part in the drawing of lots in Louisville, Mr. Beattie's records show.
In Col. Lynn's will, recently found in the Jefferson courthouse there is a provision for two daughters, who, according to the will, were captured by the British of Ruddle's and Martin's Stations in northern Kentucky. Expeditions were sent to several places but no trace of the girls was found, old records show.
The Californian simply became interested in Colonel Lynn's history, he said, and for the past few years he has made trips to Washington and places in Kentucky attempting to uncover interesting history.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry White, have returned from a short stay in Louisville.
Travis Million, was at home from the University of Kentucky, for a week-end visit to his parents at Newby.

A Roomy Sedan of Sturdy Strength

6 Cylinders—50 Horsepower—5 Passenger—$1465

The price of the Jewett Sedan is so astonishingly low that unless one has personal knowledge of the character and quality of this car of amazing value, a false classification is not an unnatural impression.

The Jewett is not a "light six" Sedan. It is a roomy, powerful, five-passenger enclosed car of distinction. It is powered with a six cylinder, 3 1/4 x 5 inch motor installed in a husky chassis in which every unit is built for excess strength.

Here is a Sedan that can be matched only by enclosed cars selling for at least $500 more than the Jewett. This is a statement certainly worth investigating. You can prove its validity by a demonstration which will be arranged to suit your convenience.

ANTELOPE FACE RAPID EXTINCTION

(By Associated Press)

Yellowstone Park, Oct. 16—The American antelope is threatened with extinction, according to officials here of the department of the interior. Unless extensive protective measures are taken, officials declared, an animal widely admired for its coloring, delicate proportions, and zephyr-like movements, soon will be seen only in museums.

There are probably not more than 3,000 antelopes remaining in the United States, according to a statement, and the total number in the park is about 350. In 1903 the number was estimated at 2,000.

The cause of the antelope has been taken up by the American Bison Society of New York. A number of societies interested in game preservation will meet in the east soon to consider a program to protect antelope. Proposed measures include provision for an adequate winter range for Yellowstone herds and for herds remaining in Oregon, Nevada, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah and California.

Last winter nearly a third of the Yellowstone Park herds were lost as a result of heavy snows and the depredations of coyotes, wolves and mountain lions. A part of this loss was made up by birth of the young this spring.

The most serious menace to their preservation here is the absence of suitable, winter range, according to these officials. Besides running the risk of starvation, owing to scant forage if the snows are deep, they are easy prey for predatory animals.

The possible winter range for antelope here at present is about 3,000 acres, which must be shared with the deer, elk and other grazing animals. The summer range covers about 100,000 acres.

Park authorities will withdraw part of the summer range from tourist use next season, as the presence of tourists is said to keep the nervous animals on the qui vive and to interfere with breeding.

MONEY NEEDED TO HELP GOOD CAUSE

In order to carry on a campaign of publicity to give to the voters of Madison county the facts in regard to the proposition to vote on a tax of 20c on each $100 of taxable property, it will be necessary to raise about $1,000. The committee and friends of the movement have already subscribed $200 and any person who is in favor of a progressive movement to improve Madison roads and reconstruct the inter-county seat highways so that the state will take and maintain them is asked to give his or her donation to R. M. Rowland at the Southern National Bank. The money is needed and will be used by the committee to print and mail to the voters all the facts.

DODGE BROTHERS BUSINESS COUPE

The approach of winter emphasizes the all-year usefulness of the car.

Wind and sleet beat in vain against the weather-stripped doors and windows. A floor radiator keeps the interior as warm as a room. The windows are readily adjusted for ventilation.

Underlying these seasonal comforts, is the satisfaction owners feel in the car's exceptional sturdiness.

The body proper is a hand-welded steel unit. It is now generally known that this novel construction has made possible Dodge Brothers enamel finish (instead of paint) which is baked at high temperature on the surface of the steel.

The trimness and grace of the body lines are enhanced by a non-rumble fabric top and rear quarters fashioned in the present attractive mode.

Genuine Spanish blue leather upholstery, wide snug-fitting doors and roomy luggage quarters heighten the impression you instantly get of the car's distinctive fitness for service, either business or social.
